^B One day, in the middle of the ocean was a boat with two fisherman. One wanted to catch a whale and the other didn't want to catch it. ~~mean~~ While, they heard a loud noise and saw a whale spray. He was so glad that he finally found a whale after so long like two hours but the other one didn't want to be on the boat or catch the whale.

Then from nowhere, came clouds the clouds made it impossible to see. But they didn't give up they kept on going in the same direction as they saw the whale spray. So they kept on going and going and going then all of a sudden, he saw the whale but the bird was in front of the whale so it got scared and took one look at the whale and moved out the way and jumped on the fisherman and he fell off the boat and in to the sea. Then the small fisherman got scared. but he came back.

Then, they went on a crazy storm race through the waves and then suddenly a ginormous wave came towards them and they got hit and then ~~the~~ it turned to day and the big whale hit out of the water and eat them both up. what a sad time for the man and the whale.
